All: The Lord will not let your foot be moved;
the Lord who keeps you will not slumber.

One: The Lord is your keeper; the Lord is your shade at your right hand.

The Lord will keep your going out and your coming in from this time on and forevermore.

 AFFIRMATION OF FAITH (The Apostle's Creed)

I believe in God the Father Almighty, Maker of heaven and earth, and in Jesus Christ his only Son our Lord;
who was conceived by the Holy Ghost, born of the Virgin Mary,
suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, dead, and buried;
he descended into hell;
the third day he rose again from the dead;
he ascended into heaven, and sitteth on the right hand of God the Father Almighty;
from thence he shall come to judge the quick and the dead.
I believe in the Holy Ghost; the holy catholic church;
the communion of saints; the forgiveness of sins;
the resurrection of the body; and the life everlasting. Amen.

Book Discussion Lunches

In connection to Martin Luther King day this month, Alex will lead a 3 week series of discussions of the book "The Color of Compromise" by Jemar Tisby. We will meet for a simple lunch in Thorington Hall after church on January 18, January 25, and February 1. Participants will need to purchase the book and keep up with readings in order to engage in the discussions. Also, please be prepared to make a $5-10 contribution each week to cover the lunch. You may purchase the book ahead of time on Amazon, Ebay, Thriftbooks, or wherever you prefer. The first week we will discuss the first 4 chapters.

The Color of Compromise details the church's role in racism in America from colonial slavery, through the Civil War and Jim Crow era, and on through the Civil Rights period and even our modern social/political context. Jemar Tisby, with incredibly thorough research, historical accuracy, and insight, discusses not only what the church has done through the years, but also why. As you can tell by the title of the book, Tisby makes a clear point that in regards to racism (as well as numerous other issues), the church and Christians compromise the gospel and the way of Jesus due to the influence of the social and political forces of the day. He does not intend it to be a political book, but does discuss in detail the times that the church, or Christians, have aligned themselves with politicians and policies that had/ have clear racial implications. Tisby is also upfront that it will be a challenging read for many, and Alex notes that he will steer the group away from arguments or agendas. However, Tisby does believe that like surgery, truth telling can be uncomfortable and even painful, but also healing and transforming – for us as individuals, for us as a church, and for society.

Please sign up on the table in the narthex, and see Alex if you have questions.

Jazz Sunday - February 8

Invite your friends and neighbors!

"If jazz is spiritual, it does not lift us off the ground, detaching us from the hard realities of life. The music's spiritual power is a holy animation in the thick of real life."

(from Thriving on a Riff by William Carter)

Jazz can actually teach us a lot about life and faith – it gives lessons in working together collaboratively, listening to the other musicians, being flexible, expressing our God-given personalities and talents, and so much more.

Come and enjoy a fun service of music before our Souper Bowl of Caring lunch.

"Faithful"

Mark Hayes

You are faithful, O God.
Your mercies are new every morning.
Your compassions have never failed me.
They are constant as each day's dawning.

No matter how the winds of change
may blow across my life,
You're my sure foundation.
You're my rock of ages.
You're my only salvation,
the One on whom I call.
You are faithful, O God.
You are my All in All.

When I don't understand, I will wait on You.
When Life brings harsh demands, I will wait on You.
When I'm lost and all alone, I will wait on You.
When I'm fearful and hope is gone, I will wait on You.

When I'm in despair,
when my way is not clear,
When my needs have weighed me down,
when my help is nowhere to be found,
I will wait on You.
